

MEMORANDUM TO: Licensed Archaeologists

FROM: Archaeology Program Unit

DATE: April 5, 2018

SUBJECT: Archaeology Program Updates

---

Dear Archaeological Licensee,

As you are beginning the new field season, we would like to take this opportunity to let you know of some changes here at the ministry. In December 2017, Peter Armstrong (Director, Programs and Services Branch) retired from the Ministry. In January of this year, Sean Fraser started as the new Director. Prior to this, Sean was the Director of Heritage Programs and Operations at the Ontario Heritage Trust.

At the end of March, Jim Sherratt, who has been with MTCS for over ten years, most recently as the Acting Manager of the Archaeology Program Unit, left the ministry to take on a new opportunity in the private sector. In the interim, Kathryn Bryant is the Acting Manager, and Meagan Brooks is the Acting Team Lead. During this transition some duties and files will be covered by other staff within the unit, as follows:

Ian Hember will be taking on licensing duties, working with Heather Kerr.

Sarah Roe will be covering the underwater archaeology files, also working with Heather Kerr.

There are also a number of staff on leave, so we have included below a current list of staff within the Archaeology Program Unit. If you are uncertain who to contact, please email archaeology@ontario.ca.
